This guide to study will be used from the beginning of Apologetics 1: How to explain and protect the Catholic faith of Father Frank Chacon and Jim Burnham. It is suitable for individuals, small groups, families or religious classes. View AllClose © 2018 Concordia Publishing House Set I Research Guide Lecture One - Is There a God? Cosmological argument: Can we know that God exists by looking at Cosmos? Lecture 2 - Is there a God? Argument out of desire: Can we know that God exists by singinging into it? Lecture Three - Who is the real Jesus? Did the Early Church of Jesus or did Jesus create the Early Church? Lecture 4 - Argument from prophecy: Were the details of Christ's life predicted in the Old Testament? Lecture 5 - The Case for the Resurrection: Can You Prove That Christ Was Raised From the Dead? Set II: Objections to Faith Many objections to faith, new and old, are circulating in our culture. Which of the most important issues should I face? Was Jesus married? Should the Gnostic Gospels be taken seriously? Was the Deity of Jesus invented? Why so much evil? Is Christ the only way? Is faith in God a fantasy? How can we talk about our faith in this culture? The five lectures in this set address these important issues. Set II Guide to Study Lecture One - The Power of Scripture: Can You Trust the Gospels? Lecture 2 - The Problem of Evil: How Can You Believe in God When There Is So Much Evil, Pain and Suffering in the World? Lecture 3 - Is Christ the Only Way? There are so many religions; How can you tell which one is right? Lecture 4 - Understanding Atheism: Faith in God Is Just a Crutch? Lecture 5 - Apologetics and Ascension: Where, Who, and What Apologetics Set III: Responding to atheism is experiencing something of a renaissance today and aggressively attacking the Christian faith in the Western world. In these lectures, we rely heavily on the thinking of C.S. Lewis, one of the most famous converts from atheism to Christianity. Some of the enduring ideas that have brought him from atheism to faith will help in response to the new atheists of our time. Set III Guide to Study Lecture One - Mind and Imagination: How Can You Communicate Your Faith Clearly? Lecture 2 - Faith and Reason: Can you reason your way to faith? Lecture 3 - Postmodernism: Can you really know anything? Lecture 4 - Relativism: Can you have ethics without God? Lecture 5 - The Undoing of Man: C.S. Lewis on the Consequences of Relativism Set IV: Responding to a New Age and Cults We are faced with a bewildering array of new religious movements in our culture today. The New Age movement and the new witchcraft movement, neo-paganism, have exploded on stage over the past twenty years. Numerous cults of content for hearing, knocking on your door or using the media to gain influence. How can we react? These lectures help. Set IV Guide to Study Lecture First - Responding to a New Eastern Religion Meets West Lecture 2 - Neo-Paganism: Answer New lecture of witchcraft three - What is a cult: Isn't the cult of another religion one man? Lecture 4 - Dealing with cults: How can you respond to cults? Lecture 5 - Argument from Agape: Can love lead you to the knowledge of Christ? Lester Fleming Dr. Sproul was a great way for me to make sure my faith as a believer. One of the main things people go through when there are difficulties in life is having doubts about the fact that God is there or even be real. Well in this series I've personally grown up, so now that I'm going through the storms and challenges of life I'm much more patient. I still have questions about some things, but knowing whether God exists is not one of them. Thank you! Douglas Bamford had to watch this series on the nrb National Religious Broadcasters live channel through DVR and play back while writing every word for word as a note teaching himself theology. You should review this series. I'd make a great Christmas present. Doug Ben McMillan I went through this series several times in person, once in a small group, and I am currently leading a Sunday school study using it. Growing up in an old Pentecostal church of holiness, I really wanted and needed a well-thought-out and systematic doctrine of Christian doctrine. This study suggests that and more. If you are looking for a deeper understanding based on objective reality rather than subjective experience this is your ticket. The study opens the door to gaining a basic understanding of how to protect the truth of Christianity's claims, as suggested in the Bible. The research helped me think more clearly about the concept of truth and how just people get off a narrow path and get lost in a sea of confusion. That's a good job. J.T. Richard Shipley R.C. has done a great job reminding us that quote: Christians should not give up rationality and scientific queries in the secular world. Common sense learning tools can be used to confirm the truth of Christianity's claims. MH Wow! R.C. makes supurb work of explaining how honest philosophical inquiry can't help but point to God... God of the Bible really. Not only that, but his eye-catching teaching style kept me hanging on every word. Philosophy when taught by R.C. is anything but boring. The series energized me with better stand reasons to believe what I was doing, so that I can safely proclaim the truth of God in this dectieful world.
